A Birds Eye Tattoo & Art Gallery, 300 W. McDaniel, presents Featured Artist George Perkins in February. A self-taught artist who was born and raised in the Ozark Mountains of Missouri, Perkins lives there still with his wife, three teenage sons, tween daughter, a princess pit bull and an anxious boxer. While painting with oils and acrylics is his primary focus, he also enjoys sculpture and woodwork, and frames his paintings with reclaimed wood, often burned or stained.

Artist Statement: "I paint what my eye finds beauty in. Sometimes there is beauty in the torture of life. I find the tenderness in the pain of a broken heart and the anticipation of tasting a full glass of whiskey. Beauty brings with it color and memory, snapshots of passing time. When I look around the world, I realize that everything was someone's passion, someone's art, and we take joy in what others create." (417) 771 5487. Open 12-9 p.m. T-Sat

BookMarx, 325 E. Walnut St., Ste. 101, presents Featured Artist Janet Abbey in a show titled Kill Day in February. www.facebook.com/bookmarxbooks

Obelisk Home at the Inspired Commerce Building, 214 W. Phelps, presents Christie Snelson: Lost Reference in February.

Lost Reference: In this collection I continue my journey over the last five years to break myself from having to use a strict reference to create my paintings. It's a range of works that explore the balance between using partial references and the lack thereof. On the other end of the spectrum, this collection also includes a dozen of intuitive abstracts as a result of completely abandoning my reference and excluding it from my process completely. (417) 616-6488 www.obeliskhome.com

Social on Patton, 314 Patton Ave. (open at 4 p.m. on Second Saturday) presents, Featured Artist Dean Curtis in February with the premiere of his collection Wild Horses of Shannon County. This stunning body of work by Missouri Photojournalism Hall of Fame inductee Dean Curtis shows the four herds of wild horses calling the pastures along the Jacks Fork and Current Rivers their home. Living in the wilds of Missouri for over 100 years, these horses are protected by law as a permanent part of the Ozark National Scenic Waterways and lovingly maintained by The Missouri Wild Horse League who prevented their eviction. Don't miss your chance to own an original print from the exhibit in a raffle supporting Harmony House! (417) 368-0778 <https://socialonpatton.com/>

Springfield Brewing Company, 305 S. Market Ave., a proud Art Walk sponsor, presents Featured Artist Rebecca Lewis Smith in February.

Rebecca's experience as an artist began with a love for abstract expressionist painting, followed by an early career creating contemporary stained-glass window designs. She is well versed in oil and acrylic painting, charcoal, mixed media and pastels.

Much of what Rebecca does in the studio is deeply influenced by both modern and ancient art, and she revels at exploring any and all art museums. She is particularly fond of abstract expressionism and expressionism in general for the way the styles communicate the individuality and spirit of the artist.
